When Time Works Against You

For busy construction professionals, time is the biggest barrier. That's where we come in.

- Chasing referees and compiling experience records
- Meeting QBCC's detailed evidence requirements
- Preparing minimum compliant financial documentation
- Understanding the technical scope rules

Applying yourself can take months or even years:

Who does this helps?

Busy construction professionals whose schedule makes self-application unrealistic

Those who have years of experience but have been held back by the QBCC's documentation and compliance requirements

Why work with me?

I understand your pain points because I've lived them. With 10 years in construction across contract admin and project management, four master's degrees, and a QBCC Builder Mid-Rise licence, I understand both the operational and compliance pressures you face. I've delivered $50M+ commercial projects and led teams through every stage of the build.

QBCC Express isn't theory, it's built by someone who gets the urgency, the red tape, and the need to move fast without cutting corners. I'm not just offering a service; I'm offering a strategic partnership to help you getting certified quickly, mitigate risk, and unlock more career opportunities.

Let's stop losing time, talent, and tenders to licensing delays and start building a workforce that's qualified, compliant, and ready to lead.

The bigger the licence,
the bigger the opportunities.

Low, Mid, or Open – We'll get you there faster.
